2. Your personal data will be processed in order to conclude and perform the information and education service contract. Your personal data will also be processed for the purposes of the Controller's legitimate interests, such as the exercise of legitimate contractual claims, security, fraud prevention or the Controller's direct marketing. Processing for purposes other than the above may be carried out: (i) on the basis of obtaining additional consent, (ii) on the basis of applicable law, or (iii) when it is compatible with the purpose for which the personal data were originally collected (Article 6(4) of EP and Council Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data and repealing Directive 95/46/EC, (hereinafter: 'GDPR').
3. The legal basis for the processing of your personal data is: a. to the extent that the processing is necessary for the performance of the information and education service contract - Article 6(1)(b) GDPR; b. to the extent that the processing is necessary for the purposes arising from the legitimate interests of the Controller, such as making necessary settlements and asserting claims arising from the concluded information and education service contract, security, fraud prevention or direct marketing of the Controller - Article 6(1)(f) GDPR.
4. You have the right to access your personal data, the right to rectify it, delete it, and the right to limit data processing. To the extent that the processing is necessary for the implementation of the Framework Agreement to which you are party or to take action on your request prior to its conclusion and providing an information and educational service (Article 6 (1) (b) of the GDPR) you also have the right to transfer data. If you believe that your data is being processed contrary to legal requirements, you can file a complaint with the competent supervisory authority with the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection in Poland.
5. Providing data is voluntary, but necessary for the provision of the information and educational service.
6. Your personal data can be transferred to the following categories of entities: banks, entities offering fast payments, companies from the capital group to which the Data Controller belongs, couriers, postal operators, supervisory authorities, financial information authorities, market data providers, entities managing investment funds, suppliers of tools, software and platforms for servicing transactions and financial operations performed in the course of implementing the Framework Agreement, as well as for sending commercial information by means of electronic communication, legal counsels and entities providing servers and storing data.
7. In the case of transferring personal data to third countries, i.e to recipients established outside the European Economic Area or Switzerland, in countries that according to the European Commission do not provide sufficient data protection (third countries that do not provide an adequate level of protection), the Data Controller transfers them using mechanisms in accordance with applicable law, which include, among others EU "Standard Contractual Clauses".

8. Your personal data will be stored for the duration of the information and education service, as well as after its termination for the period of the statutory limitation period. To the extent that the processing of data is based on the legitimate interest of the Controller, the data will be processed for the time necessary for its fulfillment, but no longer than until an objection is recognised.
9. The Controller will not use automated decision-making against you.
