6. Your personal data can be transferred to the following categories of entities: banks, entities offering quick payments, companies from the capital group to which the data controller belongs, couriers, postal operators, supervisory authorities, financial information authorities, market data providers, entities managing investment funds, suppliers of tools, software and platforms for servicing transactions and financial operations performed in the course of implementing the Framework Agreement, as well as for sending commercial information by means of electronic communication, legal counsels and entities providing servers and storing data.
7. In the case of transferring personal data to third countries, i.e. to recipients established outside the European Economic Area or Switzerland, in countries that according to the European Commission do not provide sufficient data protection (third countries that do not provide an adequate level of protection), the data controller transfers them using mechanisms in accordance with applicable law, which include, among others EU "Standard Contractual Clauses".
8. Your personal data will be stored for the duration of the Framework Agreement, as well as after its termination, in accordance with art. 49 of the Act, for a period of 5 years, starting from the first day of the year following the year in which the economic relations with the client were concluded or until the limitation period for claims arising from legal provisions. Data included in the results of the assessments of economic relations referred to in art. 34 par. 3 of the Act shall be processed for a period of 5 years, starting from the first day of the year following the year of their execution. In the absence of positive verification of identity in connection with the conclusion of the Framework Agreement and a return transfer of funds equivalent to EUR 15,000 or more (occasional transaction), your personal data will be stored for a period of 5 years, counting from the first day of the year following the year of its execution or until the limitation of claims arising from legal provisions; in the case of smaller amounts, your personal data (excluding those that are processed for the purpose of providing an information and educational service) will be deleted as soon as the return transfer is carried out. The above data retention periods may be extended on the terms specified in art. 49 par. 3 of the Act.
To the extent that the data processing is based on the legitimate interest of the data controller, the data will be processed for the time necessary for its implementation (in particular to the time limitation of claims under the applicable law), but no longer than until the opposition is considered justified by your special situation, and where the legitimate interest is direct marketing of the data controller - until you express your objection.
9. Your personal data will be processed for the duration of the information and educational service agreement, as well as after its termination, until the limitation period for claims arising from legal provisions.
